

A romantic garden scene at sunset. In the foreground, a large bouquet of white and red calla lilies sits in an ornate silver vase on the left. Another smaller bouquet is on the right. A pool of water in the center reflects the golden sunset sky and the surrounding garden. In the background, there are white columns, a small building, and mountains under a bright sun with rays. A calendar for August 2027 is overlaid on the scene, featuring a grid of dates and a decorative border with floral motifs.
